ABOUT ZINC

Situated across from the historic New Haven Green, in the heart of the city's shopping district, ZINC offers up its unique style of Modern American Food for both lunch and dinner. Since opening its doors in September of 1999, ZINC's modern interpretation of "American Food" has firmly established it in New Haven's burgeoning restaurant scene.

Acclaimed chef Denise Appel describes ZINC's Modern American Food as "market inspired and globally infused." The menus for both lunch and dinner change seasonally, often drawing upon the area's fine green markets and local organic farms for the freshest ingredients. Critical accolades from The New York Times, The Hartford Courant, and Connecticut Magazine in ZINC's first year and, more recently, an invitation to the James Beard House and an "Excellent" review from The New York Times, have confirmed ZINC's star power.
